The Art of Coaching Institute I

This series of professional development sessions will prepare participants to use coaching as a strategy for developing instructional capacity among literacy teachers. Participants will learn to shape understandings of best practice and prompt reflection to develop more responsive teaching and greater student achievement. These sessions use a hands-on, collaborative approach and will require that participants engage in coaching between sessions.

The Art of Coaching Institute II

As a follow-up to The Art of Coaching Institute I, this two-day session will deepen thinking and provide additional opportunities to develop coaching expertise through collaborative learning experiences.

Successful Completion of The Art of Coaching Institute I is MANDATORY.
